WEEKLY ANOUNCEMENTS – ELEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST–AUGUST 16th–AUGUST 22nd

CELEBRATING HOLY COMMUNION

It has been over eighteen weeks since we have gathered together for Holy Communion. We hope to again celebrate Holy Communion together on Sunday, August 16 at our 8:30 Outdoor Worship under the big tree.

Following that we will also have small group Communion Services available. Call the church office 641-592-1771 to schedule a time for a small group (10 or less). These visits can happen at the yard of your home, at the Oakwood Park shelter, your garage or anywhere outdoors that groups of 10 can safely meet.

Best practices of physical distancing and prepackaged supplies will be used.

NORTHEASTERN IOWA SYNOD HAS A NEW BISHOP

The Northeastern Iowa Synod is pleased to announce that they have extended a contract to Rev. Andrea DeGroot-Nesdahl to serve as interim Bishop of the Synod beginning September 1.

Bishop Degroot-Nesdahl served a six-year term as South Dakota Synod's first female bishop in 1995. She was the second woman to serve as a synodical bishop in the entire ELCA. Before she was elected as bishop of the South Dakota Synod, DeGroot-Nesdahl was assistant to the bishop of the Western North Dakota Synod. She served several congregations in North Dakota and Wisconsin after she was ordained as a Lutheran pastor in 1997. In 1996, she was awarded an honorary doctorate by Wartburg Seminary.

ZOOM INTO A FRIDAY FORUM

Pastor Joel has signed up for and learning how to use Zoom for hosting, chats, forums, confirmation and faith formation meetings, online meetings, etc.

The area pastor's text study has been meeting weekly for about four months now. If you are new to Zoom, as Pastor Joel was, connecting to a meeting from an email invitation is simple from any computer, smart phone or cell phone. Even with an old fashioned landline one is able to dial in and enter an access number when prompted to listen in on a meeting or forum.

Pastor Joel has purchased an account that allows him to host meetings. We will try an Open Forum on Friday, June 21 at 10:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. To be invited to an open forum all you will need to do is to send an email to Pastor Joel prior to the meeting and he can send you the link to enter the meeting. When you click on the link you can join in the conversation. This link offers a short YouTube tutorial to begin

We Are Beggars, This Is True

"We are beggars; this is true," are reported to be Martin Luther's last written words. Christians are "beggars" for God's grace, undeserving but graced nonetheless. A beggar's faith focuses not on what is given or accomplished or believed, but on what is received: the healing and sustenance desperately longed for and needed.

In today's gospel, the Canaanite woman is such a "beggar" for Jesus' healing for her daughter. She is denied a place at the table at first, but she will accept even "crumbs" in the faith that Jesus' healing power and love are intended even for her. As a Gentile outsider, she inhabits the margins of Jesus' mission to the "lost sheep of the house of Israel." Jesus' eventual response to her beggar's faith reveals that the love of God even encompasses the margins.

Marginalized or not, we are all beggars before God, as Paul reminds the Romans—all "imprisoned in disobedience" and dependent on God. Thus, our sense of "insider" and "outsider" crumbles in the face of our common need and God's abundant mercy to all. Instead of dividing people between those who have a place at the table and those who get crumbs, we have an opportunity to share hospitality with our fellow beggars.

It can be challenging to see ourselves as beggars. Today the Canaanite woman becomes our model, as she persists with both humility and audacity. As disciples of Jesus and "beggars" for God's grace, we live the same paradox of humility and audacity, boldly coming to Jesus and humbly acknowledging our need. Even though crumbs from God's table would be enough for us, we are offered instead the abundance of Jesus' own self in bread and wine and invited to share this abundance with insider and outsider alike.
