

WEEKLY ANNOUNCEMENTS

SALEM LUTHERAN CHURCH

May 29 – June 4

Praying for You

Today's gospel reading is first and foremost a prayer. It is Jesus' prayer, and we are given the privilege of listening in as he prays on behalf of his disciples and people of all times and places. Listeners are given a glimpse of Jesus' mission for the world—that all may be drawn into the life of the triune God. On the eve of his death, Jesus entrusts this particular community of disciples—but also our communities, our lives, and our world—into the care of God.

What is it Jesus is doing when he prays? What is it the church does when it prays on behalf of the world and other people? To be prayed for by another is to know one's life is cared for and has value to the one praying on your behalf. It is to know that much of the future is out of one's own control but rests instead in the care of the Triune God. To be prayed for is to be vulnerable, dependent, and deeply loved.

Here is the astoundingly good news: Jesus prays for you, and for the communities in which we find ourselves. Whether your cup is empty or full, whether your community is in crisis or experiencing joy, whether your future is foggy or clear, Jesus loves you deeply and your life is bound to the God who loved you before the foundations of the world. On the eve of his death, Jesus entrusted your life and the church's life and its entire future to the Father. What glorious good news that the future rests in the care of the Triune God, and that we, the church, are set free to make God known to the world.

As church Council President, I can attest that we have had our share of difficult decisions the past few years here at Salem.

Since returning to in-person worship over a year ago, attendance for our Sunday morning worship service has returned to more normal numbers but this has not been the case for the Saturday evening worship service.

Last fall, the board of Music and Worship expressed concerns over the sustainability of the service and it was agreed by Council to review the status in April.

At the April Council meeting, the board of Music and Worship recommendation was to discontinue Saturday evening worship service.

Council agreed to make a final decision at the May meeting in order to allow for all boards to have met and have had the opportunity to discuss the impact of there being no Saturday evening worship service and to bring those concerns to the May Council meeting.

April Council meeting minutes were published for all members to review and there was discussion at the Coffee Fellowship in addition to several phone calls and text messages.

Last week, Council met and after reviewing worship attendance, resource issues to lead worship, financial responsibility, time of Sunday worship, radio broadcast implications we unanimously voted to end Saturday evening worship service with the last Saturday being May 28th. This service will be taped for radio broadcast Sunday, May 29th.

Additionally, Sunday worship service will remain at 9:00 am. We will review this once again closer to fall with the start of Faith Formation and Confirmation.

Because Saturday worship service is recorded for Sunday radio broadcast, Council weighed all options whether or not to continue this ministry.

Ultimately, it was unanimously decided to discontinue the radio broadcast. We have been blessed to be part of the KLOW Sunday worship broadcast lineup, however Salem does offer livestream and each service is also available on YouTube for viewing as desired.

For those of you that have sponsored a future Sunday radio broadcast, I will reach out to you personally to discuss.

I want each and every one of you to know that these decisions were not made easily and my heart is heavy today. But, I continue to put faith in God that he will lead and guide us and I know that all of you will do this as well.
