

WEEKLY ANNOUNCEMENTS

SALEM LUTHERAN CHURCH

June 5 – June 11

What Does This Mean?

“What does this mean?” the devout ask (Acts 2:12). For those gathered in that house, the event meant the birth of sudden, surprising, unmerited new life. Filled with the Holy Spirit, they burst from the house with a story to share about God’s wonders. But what does this event of Pentecost mean for us, today, many centuries later? God is at work here, now, in the world. Through the gift of the Holy Spirit, the Advocate, God is walking alongside as friend, truth-teller, comforter, and guide.

The writer of John’s gospel speaks of it in this way: the Advocate, the one whom the Father will send, will teach the disciples everything they need to know. God is not yet finished revealing who God is, and the disciples are not yet finished learning. Through the Spirit of truth, the disciples will do the work of Jesus, and his life will continue through them.

In holy baptism, the Spirit rests on the heads of young and old alike. Filled with the Holy Spirit, the baptized have an old, old story to tell of Jesus and his love—and a new, new story of how God is birthing sudden, surprising, and unmerited new life all around us, every day. God is at work, here, now in the world through the lives of everyday Christians. Jesus’ work continues through the lives of all the baptized. We discover meaning from this Pentecost story today, not only for our own sake but for the sake of the world that so hungers for this life.

As church Council President, I can attest that we have had our share of difficult decisions the past few years here at Salem.

Since returning to in-person worship over a year ago, attendance for our Sunday morning worship service has returned to more normal numbers but this has not been the case for the Saturday evening worship service.

Last fall, the board of Music and Worship expressed concerns over the sustainability of the service and it was agreed by Council to review the status in April.

At the April Council meeting, the board of Music and Worship recommendation was to discontinue Saturday evening worship service.

Council agreed to make a final decision at the May meeting in order to allow for all boards to have met and have had the opportunity to discuss the impact of there being no Saturday evening worship service and to bring those concerns to the May Council meeting.

April Council meeting minutes were published for all members to review and there was discussion at the Coffee Fellowship in addition to several phone calls and text messages.

Last week, Council met and after reviewing worship attendance, resource issues to lead worship, financial responsibility, time of Sunday worship, radio broadcast implications we unanimously voted to end Saturday evening worship service with the last Saturday being May 28th. This service will be taped for radio broadcast Sunday, May 29th.

Additionally, Sunday worship service will remain at 9:00 am. We will review this once again closer to fall with the start of Faith Formation and Confirmation.

Because Saturday worship service is recorded for Sunday radio broadcast, Council weighed all options whether or not to continue this ministry.

Ultimately, it was unanimously decided to discontinue the radio broadcast. We have been blessed to be part of the KLOW Sunday worship broadcast lineup, however Salem does offer livestream and each service is also available on YouTube for viewing as desired.

For those of you that have sponsored a future Sunday radio broadcast, I will reach out to you personally to discuss.

I want each and every one of you to know that these decisions were not made easily and my heart is heavy today. But, I continue to put faith in God that he will lead and guide us and I know that all of you will do this as well.

Shannon Bruhns-Council President
