

Angela Kay Flo

March 15, 1971-May 21, 2023

Angela (Angie) Kay Flo, born March 15, 1971, was reunited with her daughter, Savannah, Sunday, May 21, 2023. A celebration of life is planned for Saturday, July 15, at the Isaac Walton Club at the Rice Lake Golf course in Lake Mills. The event will start at 1:00 o'clock.

Angie was known for her many talents. She was a para[SEP]educator, caterer, customer service representative,[SEP]waitress/bartender, and daycare provider. She held many titles—[SEP]loving daughter, free spirited sister, incredible mother, overly caring granddaughter, rambunctious niece, and loyal friend—but the greatest title of all was “Grandma”. She had a very special bond with her grandchildren, and always had a dream to travel around with them in her future RV.[SEP]

Angie loved camping with friends and family. She was her[SEP]grandson, Emerson’s #1 cheerleader for motocross. Her smile [SEP]radiated through the entire room, her laugh was contagious to all, and she lived every day to the fullest.[SEP]

Angie lived a beautiful life and loved with her entire heart. She has left a huge void in all of our lives. When you look up and see the brightest star, know that she is smiling down on you, and will continue to watch over you, forever in the sky.
