Norma Roine (Anderson) Thompson was born on August 17, 1934 at Buffalo Center, IA, to parents Ober and Myrtle (Severeid) Anderson. She was baptized and confirmed in the Lutheran faith. Norma attended and graduated from Thompson High School in 1952.

On June 12, 1955, Norma was united in marriage with Roger L. Thompson at Bethany Lutheran Church in Thompson, IA. The couple lived in Louisiana while Roger was in the US Army, and afterwards returned to Lake Mills where they made their home.

Through the years, Norma worked various occupations, but none compared to being a wife and the mother of three beautiful girls: Nancy, Julie and Lisa. Norma took great pride in her family, her home, and her faith. She was blessed to spend time with her grandchildren, attending birthdays and sporting events, and most recently, Norma became a great-grandmother. She enjoyed baking, playing card games with her friends and traveling. She was also the family correspondent, sending out cards to relatives for momentous occasions and holidays.

At Salem Lutheran Church, Norma was dedicated to WELCA, Miriam Circle, and in earlier years she and Roger were members of the '79ers.

Norma will be missed by her three daughters, Nancy (Jeff) Heinke of San Antonio, TX, Julie (Kim) Trebil of Clear Lake, IA, and Lisa (Mike) Farland of Chanhassen, MN; her six grandchildren, Lauren Heinke, Andrew Heinke, Mason Trebil, Christian (Shayla) Trebil, Blake Farland and Logan Farland; and a precious great-granddaughter, Hayden Trebil.

She is also survived by brothers and sisters Ober Jay (Iolene) Anderson of Ankeny, IA, Leona Lacroix of Colorado Springs, CO, Marlene McLaurin of Vicksburg, MS, Lynn (Marybeth) Anderson of Nathrop, CO, and Gary (Becky) Anderson of Southlake, TX. Also sisters-in-law Margaret (Peg) Anderson of Austin, MN, and Donna Anderson of Enid, OK, sister-in-law and brother-in-law Phyllis & Ron Moen of Lake Mills, IA; as well as many nieces, nephews, extended relatives and friends.

She was preceded in death by infant brother Duane E.; her parents; sister Elois Qualley; granddaughter Nina Trebil; husband Roger; and brothers Orvis, Donnie, and Duane S. Anderson.
