Oh Roxy.."you're so fine you blow my mind, hey Roxy." I always said that to her. She was quite a lady..We've laughed and we have cried, but always end up laughing. Your Barbie doll collection, we shared the love for Barbie..you will be missed, but not forgotten. My thoughts and prayers to the family and friends. She is at peace..RIP I love this picture, it's on my mirror..Oh yes and your outfits, fit you to a tea..we could see you coming. Love you, we always said "love you."???

Our heartfelt condolences to Roxy's family & all who loved her. Losing a loved one can be so very painful. Know we will be lifting you up in prayer in the days to come, asking God to comfort you as only He can. Let the good memories help carry you through the difficult times...Roxy would want that.

Roxy was a true lady! I was always admiring what she was wearing! I remember a red shawl she wore at a 4th of July parade in Piedmont and I told her to keep a tight grip on it or it would come up missing! The last time I saw her was at a party at the Barn here in Piedmont and we,well, uh, we were very happy and laughed alot! Goodbye sweet lady.
